

SNOOPY CLASS DECEMBER NEWSLETTER

Ms. Becky & Ms. Jess

Happy Holidays! The Christmas Season has officially begun! This means our music will change to ALL Christmas ALL the time! In December, our focus will be on the color blue and the star shape. We will read stories about Baby Jesus, Santa, Elmo, and Llama (to name a few!) and we will sing and dance to our favorite Christmas Carols (Jingle Bells, Frosty),.... so please listen for them at home. So much to do and so little time! Our little friends are going to have so much fun this month!!

FYI: Our Thanksgiving pajama party was so much fun that we decided to have another one for Christmas! Please send your child to school in pjs on Wednesday, December 9th and Thursday, December 10th. Fun will be had by all!

MERRY CHRISTMAS!!
